

Project Fact Sheet

Project Name: Potato production through zero-tillage with straw mulch: an innovative technology for sustainable intensification and diversification of rice-based systems to improve livelihoods of small-scale farmers in Asia.

Project Location: Batiaghata & Dacope Upazila in Khulna District

Project Period: October 01, 2021 to December 31, 2025.

Funded by: International Potato Centre

Total Budget: BDT 4,800,000.00

Direct Beneficiaries: 1700

Goal of the Project

Sustainable intensification and diversification of rice-based systems to improve livelihoods of small-scale farmers in Asia.

Project Objective

It is envisaged that PRODIPAN will support extension and socio-economic studies of PZTM in this project with a focus on Bangladesh.

Activities of the Project

? Support the collection of baseline household information;

